Greenwich Boat Show packing an even bigger splash for 2020

One of the Northeast's most anticipated boating events of the year returns to celebrate its 12th year on April 4 and 5. Greenwich Boat Show will deliver a diverse selection of 26 dealers and 56 manufacturers, there will be 125 new boats in the water and ready for sea-trial. This unique set-up will take place along the Mianus River from 10am to 4pm each day. It's the only boater-friendly show to offer both free sea trials and free admission, attendees can test boats on Long Island Sound's open waters.

Those who enjoy fishing can try some of the world's best center consoles and sportfishing boats, such as Pursuit, Boston Whaler, Edgewater, Seaway, Regulator, Albemarle, Fountain, Robolo, Valhalla and Everglades. Anglers will also enjoy trying out boats from Blackfin, Viking, World Cat, Sea Pro, Pioneer, Ribcraft, SeaFox, Scout, Century and Sea Hunt.

If you prefer cruising and spending days on the water with the family, try out the newest models from Grady White, Sea Ray, Chaparral, Donzi, Nimbus, Formula, Fountain, Rossiter, Regal, Eastern, South Bay, Four Winns and Monterey. There will also be inflatables from Brig, Oxcean and Zarr.

Boaters with an eye for high-end vessels can explore Tiara Yachts, Beneteau, Azimut, Cruiser and Sunseeker Yachts, Gran Turismo, MJM, Vanquish, Back Cove, Sabre, Chris Craft, Swift Trawler, and Axopar Boats. Other luxury vessels available at the show include Mag Bay, Sea Line Yachts, Sabre, Hunt Yachts, Monte Carlo Yachts, Southport Boats and Fairline.

To ensure you get to test drive your favorite boat, be sure to schedule a sea-trial in advance on the show's website, www.greenwichboatshow.com.
